FIRST FLOOR EXPERIENCES

LEGACY THEATER

Discover the moving stories of African American Hoosiers who helped shape Indiana's past and continue to influence our lives.

GALLERY ONE

In this brand-new interactive exhibit, you'll chat with an object, compose a song for a painting and examine some of our most puzzling collection selections – all while discovering that there's more than one way to explore the museum. Generous support provided by Allen Whitehill Clowes Charitable Foundation, Inc.

ANCIENT SEAS

Believe it or not, oceans once covered Indiana. Explore various touch drawers, see fossils and learn how ancient animals helped build the bedrock beneath our feet.

FROZEN REIGN: A STATE OF CHANGE

Journey through the Ice Age, beginning with a trip through a chilly ice tunnel. See how you size up against various prehistoric animals, wind your way through replicas of ancient caves and go toe-to-tusk with the real skeletons of Ice Age giants.

FIRST NATIONS: THE STORY OF INDIANA'S FOUNDING PEOPLE

Learn about the vibrant communities built by Indiana's Native Americans and how traditions are alive today. See rare artifacts, enjoy interactive video experiences and more.

NATURAL REGIONS

Indiana's landscape has changed drastically over time, affecting the lives of animals that call the state home. Hear the sounds of different frogs and birds, see replicas of Indiana's environment throughout time and learn about threats to native plants and animals today.

R.B. ANNIS NATURALIST'S LAB

Explore, play and discover Indiana's natural history through hands-on science activities in the Naturalist's Lab.

IMAX® THEATER

Featuring Academy Award-winning IMAX® technology and a six-story screen, the IMAX Theater offers audiences both 2D and 3D IMAX films, as well as contemporary Hollywood movies. Movie tickets not included with purchase of museum admission. More information can be found at imaxindy.com.

SECOND FLOOR EXPERIENCES

CONTESTED TERRITORY

Learn about the turbulent time in Indiana's history as it moved from frontier to statehood. Enter the scene as the Treaty of Greenville is negotiated and hear Little Turtle's powerful speech spoken in the Miami language.

19TH STATE

Step into pioneer Indiana and be transported to a world of oxen, farm tools and log cabins. See rare artifacts from Abraham Lincoln's family, and find spaces where you can practice chopping wood and sawing a log.

THE HOOSIER WAY

Learn how Indiana forged its identity after the pioneer era by exploring real artifacts from this time of transformation. See artifacts from Indiana's first African American settlements, objects from the Civil War and more.

CROSSROADS OF AMERICA

Explore the technological advancements in the era of railroads and see how those improvements - like Wootton desks and automobiles, along with the use of coal and gas - changed transportation and commerce in Indiana.

ENTERPRISE INDIANA

Experience American milestones such as World War I, Prohibition and suffrage through the eyes of Hoosiers who were there. Get up close to a Stutz automobile, and learn the stories of Indiana's immigrants.

GLOBAL INDIANA

Discover Indiana's global impact, from World War II and pop culture to Hoosier life today. See war reporter Ernie Pyle's typewriter, basketball icon Bobby Plump's backboard, political signs from one of Indiana's first Latina elected officials and more.

AMERICAN ORIGINALS

Visit a room filled with the faces of 20th-century Hoosiers. The stories of Indiana legends - like Gus Grissom, James Dean and Florence Henderson - are told in this unique space.

MAJOR TAYLOR

>>> FASTEST CYCLIST IN THE WORLD

OPEN THROUGH OCT. 23

Discover the life and career of champion bicycle racer and Indianapolis native Marshall “Major” Taylor. In this interactive experience, venture into the training room to learn how Taylor developed his speed and agility through a strict regimen of exercise and diet. Discover the pervasive racism that Taylor battled - from his competitors and in his hometown - and hear from great contemporary cyclists about how Taylor’s story has inspired a new generation of Black riders. See Taylor’s bicycle and many artifacts from the museum collection, plus learn about bicycle safety and design, tinker with bikes and bike parts, test your skills and times on stationary bikes and more.

Made possible by Institute of Museum and Library Services, Indy Arts Council and the City of Indianapolis, OneAmerica Foundation, OrthoIndy Foundation, Barnes and Thornburg LLP and Indiana Humanities.

CARDBOARD ENGINEERING: BUILD A CITY OPEN THROUGH OCT. 30

Bring your child – or just your own inner child – to experience this 3,000-square-foot playspace stocked with cardboard boxes, pieces and more to make buildings, vehicles or whatever you can dream up. Create what you like and help add to our collective cardboard cityscape and park.

98TH ANNUAL HOOSIER SALON OPEN AUG. 27 THROUGH OCT. 23

Experience award-winning artwork from Hoosier artists in this 98th annual competition. The show is Indiana's longest-running art exhibition and is considered the preeminent juried exhibition of Indiana art by Indiana artists. Artwork displayed in this show is available for sale.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT METAMORA GRIST MILL

AUG. 13

10 a.m. to 5 p.m. | Special admission discount: $1/youth (ages 3-17); general admission $5/adults, $4/seniors (ages 60+), free for children younger than age 3

In our transportation discovery space, children can learn on our wooden canal and train table how Hoosiers used to move from here to there, chart their course through Indiana with an interactive map and pack a model canal boat full of crates and merchandise before its journey to Cincinnati. Plus, discover the mill's history from its beginnings to today and see for yourself how the mill grinds corn into flour, meal and grits - just as it has since the 1800s. Then try milling grains yourself with a hand-powered grinder and learn how millers secured sacks with a miller's knot.

BOAT IN A PACKET (AGES 7-11)

AUG. 20

10 a.m. to noon | $10/youth, 25% discount for members

Canal boats - also called packet boats - featured many unique features that allowed for canal travel. Discover the different types of boats that traveled Indiana's canals, find out how designs changed throughout the years, then build and test your own boat using a packet of materials. Registration required by Aug. 13. Supported by Franklin County Community Foundation.

WHITEWATER CANAL GUIDED TOUR

AUG. 20, SEPT. 24 AND OCT. 15

2 to 2:30 p.m. | $7/adult (ages 18+), $6/senior (ages 60+), $5/youth (ages 3-17), $2/member

Explore the historic Whitewater Canal in Metamora during a 30-minute walking tour, and discover how canals served as an early mode of transportation for people and goods. Take a closer look at the Duck Creek Aqueduct - the only one of its kind in the United States! Supported by Indiana Humanities.

HOMESCHOOL WEDNESDAYS (AGES 7-11)

10 a.m. to noon | $8/youth, $1/sibling discount, 25% discount for members

SEPT. 7 – SIMPLE MACHINES

Mills on the Whitewater Canal couldn't have operated without simple machines – from the wedges on a millwheel to the inclined planes needed to separate grains. Discover these simple machines and more at the mill, plus explore simple machines through crafts and science experiments and take home a simple machine creation of your own! Registration required by Sept. 5.

OCT. 5 – FLOAT THE BOAT

Canal boat builders didn't need to worry about sails or engines when constructing a boat. The most important thing a canal boat had to do was float! Create a tin-foil boat that can float and hold as much cargo as possible during this hands-on program. Registration required by Oct. 3.

CANAL DAYS

OCT. 7 & 8 | 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

OCT. 9 | 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
