WELCOME TO THE
INDIANA STATE
MUSEUM

Located in White River State Park in the heart of downtown Indianapolis, you’ll find a place to explore big questions and learn the story of Indiana – from the ancient forces that shaped the land to Hoosier icons of the modern day. Throughout our galleries, there’s truly something for every interest.

FIRST FLOOR EXPERIENCES

Legacy Theater
Discover the moving stories of African American Hoosiers who helped shape Indiana’s past and continue to influence our lives.

Gallery One
In this interactive exhibit, you’ll chat with an object, compose a song for a painting and explore some of our most puzzling collection selections – all while discovering that there’s more than one way to explore the museum.

Generous support provided by Allen Whitehill Clowes Charitable Foundation, Inc.

Ancient Seas
Believe it or not, oceans once covered Indiana. Explore various touch drawers, see fossils and learn how ancient animals helped build the bedrock beneath our feet.

Frozen Reign: A State of Change
Journey through the Ice Age, beginning with a trip through a chilly ice tunnel. See how you size up against various prehistoric animals, wind your way through replicas of ancient caves and go toe-to-tusk with the real skeletons of Ice Age giants.

First Nations: The Story of Indiana’s Founding People
Learn about the vibrant communities built by Indiana’s Native Americans and how traditions are alive today. See rare artifacts, enjoy interactive video experiences and more.
Natural Regions
Indiana’s landscape has changed drastically over time, affecting the lives of animals that call the state home. Hear the sounds of different frogs and birds, see replicas of Indiana’s environment throughout time and learn about threats to native plants and animals today.

R.B. Annis Naturalist’s Lab
Explore, play and discover Indiana’s natural history through hands-on science activities in the Naturalist’s Lab.

IMAX® Theater
Featuring Academy Award-winning IMAX® technology and a six-story screen, the IMAX Theater offers audiences both 2D and 3D IMAX films, as well as contemporary Hollywood movies. Movie tickets not included with purchase of museum admission. More information at imaxindy.com.
SECOND FLOOR EXPERIENCES

Contested Territory
Learn about the turbulent time in Indiana’s history as it moved from frontier to statehood. Enter the scene as the Treaty of Greenville is negotiated and hear Little Turtle’s powerful speech spoken in the Miami language.

19th State
Step into pioneer Indiana and be transported to a world of oxen, farm tools and log cabins. See rare artifacts from Abraham Lincoln’s family, and find spaces where you can practice chopping wood and sawing a log.

The Hoosier Way
Learn how Indiana forged its identity after the pioneer era by exploring real artifacts from this time of transformation. See artifacts from Indiana’s first African American settlements, objects from the Civil War and more.

Crossroads of America
Explore the technological advancements in the era of railroads and see how those improvements - like Wooton desks and automobiles, along with the use of coal and gas - changed transportation and commerce in Indiana.
Enterprise Indiana
Experience American milestones such as World War I, Prohibition and suffrage through the eyes of Hoosiers who were there. Get up close to a Stutz automobile, and learn the stories of Indiana’s immigrants.

Global Indiana
Discover Indiana’s global impact, from World War II and pop culture to Hoosier life today. See war reporter Ernie Pyle’s typewriter, basketball icon Bobby Plump’s backboard, political signs from one of Indiana’s first Latina elected officials and more.

American Originals
Visit a room filled with the faces of 20th-century Hoosiers. The stories of Indiana legends – like Gus Grissom, James Dean and Florence Henderson – are told in this unique space.
Indiana Waterways: The Art of Conservation
Open Oct. 16 to Dec. 11
See the works of five artists and their views of Indiana waterways in this exhibition of 60 paintings designed to call attention to the importance of protecting the state’s 62,000 miles of rivers, streams and tributaries. The artists are Avon Waters (from Converse, pastels), John Kelty (Fort Wayne, watercolors), Curt Stanfield (Rosedale, oils) and brothers Dan and Tom Woodson (Muncie, oils); their subject matter is from all over Indiana.

Celebration Crossing
Open Nov. 25 to Jan. 1, 2023
Hop on the Snowfall Express and journey through a forest populated by animals celebrating the coming winter and first snowfall. Late autumn and winter scenes come alive with charming, whimsical characters, movement and music. Our new, easily accessible train will allow everyone in the family to enjoy the nearly five-minute trip together. Plus, many favorites are back this year, including visits with Santa, activities in Santa’s Front Yard, the Reindeer Barn, the 92 County Tree, Santa’s Holiday Breakfast, Winter Wonderland Workshops, the original L.S. Ayres train and more.

Made possible by Ayres Foundation Inc.
Supported by GEICO

Nikon Small World
Open Dec. 16 through Feb. 19, 2023
A photomicrograph is an image whose structure, color, composition and content can be an object of beauty, open to several levels of comprehension and appreciation. The Nikon Small World Competition first began in 1975 to recognize and applaud the efforts of those involved with photography through the light microscope. Since then, it has become a leading showcase for photomicrographers from the widest array of scientific disciplines.

Inspired by the Dunes: Paintings by Frank V. Dudley
Open Jan. 28 through June 25, 2023
Frank Dudley’s artwork - inspired by the beauty of the Indiana Dunes - helped to preserve the rare ecosystem where people come to explore, study, enjoy and create. Visitors will see several Dudley paintings from throughout his career. They’ll step into one of his beach scenes, learn about his life and see how his work influenced authors, photographers, poets and artists – like Jason Wesaw – who continue to find inspiration in the Dunes landscape.

LIFE IN AN EARLY INDIANA HOME CHILDREN’S TOUR (AGES 4-8)
Nov. 5, Dec. 3 & Jan. 14
10 to 11 a.m.
$3/person, 25% discount for members
Could you live in an 1839 home? Discover what life was like in the early 1800s for the Coffin family children. Compare the chores you do today with the chores they did (without electricity!), find out how school was different then versus now, and learn fun tidbits – like how long it took to make butter! Registration required by Nov. 4.
VIRTUAL! ABOLITION AND PUMPKIN PIE (AGES 18+)

Nov. 16
7 to 8:30 p.m.
$5/person, 25% discount for members

Did you know the popularity of pumpkin pie came about thanks to the work of abolitionists? During this virtual event with author and historian Cindy Ott, learn about the research and work she did to verify this odd historical fact. Registration required by Nov. 15.

LAST THE WINTER: THE HISTORY AND SCIENCE OF FOOD PRESERVATION (AGES 9+)

Nov. 17
5:30 to 7 p.m.
$8/adults, $6/seniors, $4/youth, 25% discount for members

Before the days of refrigeration, families had to make sure they had enough food stored to last through the cold months. Salting, pickling, smoking and drying helped families preserve food they worked so hard to grow and cultivate throughout the spring, summer and fall. Families and groups will explore preservation techniques, then choose spices to produce a pickled jar to take home with them – just in time for Thanksgiving! Registration required by Nov. 16.

GIRL SCOUT DAY

Nov. 19
1 to 3 p.m.
$13/adults, $8/scouts, $3/members

Discover how the Underground Railroad system and conductors were instrumental in aiding freedom-seekers on their journeys north to Canada. Find out how Levi and Catharine Coffin used their home in Fountain City to impact the lives of 1,000+ freedom-seekers. Explore during a self-guided tour of the Interpretive Center and learn more through hands-on activities. Registration required by Nov. 18 by calling 765.847.1691.

6 to 7 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m.
$15/adults, $13/seniors, $10/youth, 25% discount for members

Experience the Levi and Catharine Coffin home by candlelight and hear stories highlighting the experiences of freedom-seekers who chose to risk everything to escape slavery. Explore why winter was a common season for escapes, learn why some freedom-seekers chose to stay in Fountain City before moving further north and find out how free Blacks were just as instrumental to the Underground Railroad as white conductors. Registration required by 5 p.m. the day of the program.

FOLLOW THE DRINKING GOULD (AGES 8-12)
Dec. 17
2 to 3 p.m.
$6/youth, 25% discount for members

Discover how people have used the stars throughout history as a guide. Explore the African American folk song, “Follow the Drinking Gourd,” and learn how its words helped freedom-seekers on their journeys. See stars during a virtual experience thanks to the Joseph Moore Museum’s planetarium and learn more about the “drinking gourd” in the night sky. Partake in astronomy-focused crafts and hands-on activities. Registration required by 5 p.m. on Dec. 16.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING 101 (AGES 14+)
Jan. 7
6 to 7:30 p.m.
FREE

Learn the stories of real survivors of human trafficking and sexual exploitation. And, discover ways to prevent human trafficking in your community during this event with Allies Inc., an organization that empowers survivors of trafficking and sexual exploitation through prevention education, awareness and connection. Resources about how to spot trafficking, ways to report it and how to advocate for those at risk will be available.

This program is presented as part of National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month.
MLK DAY PROGRAM:
“STILL I RISE” FILM VIEWING
Jan. 16
10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
FREE
Explore African American history in the last 50 years through Henry Louis Gates’ four-hour series, “Black America Since MLK: And Still I Rise.” Joined by leading scholars, celebrities and a dynamic cast of people who shaped these years, Gate examines the victories of the Civil Rights Movement up to today, asking profound questions about the state of Black America – and our nation as a whole.
